

BEGINNING

The best of the stories, perspectives, images and videos.

Parliament winter session begins, first Centre-Oppn face-off over demonetisation

India, Nov. 16 -- The winter session of the Parliament opened on Wednesday and the first morning will be an indicator of how the day will proceed but also indicate what is in store for the government this week. The Lok Sabha was adjourned after obituary reference as a sitting member has passed away.

Parliament winter session: Congress to question legality of Rs 2,000 note

India, Nov. 21 -- Parliament is bracing for a stormy start to the second week of the winter session as opposition parties attempt to push the Prime Minister to appear in the House to answer questions on a shock recall of high-value currency almost two weeks ago.

As it happened: Both Houses adjourned as demonetisation protests rage on

India, Nov. 22 -- Not unlike the first four days of the winter session, Tuesday's proceedings in both Houses was constantly disrupted as opposition parties demanded for a debate on demonetisation and for Prime Minister Narendra Modi to address Parliament on the issue.

NEWS

Parliament staring at another stormy day as Oppn calls for nationwide protests

India, Nov. 28 -- Prime Minister Narendra Modi will on Monday morning meet senior ministers in Parliament that has seen regular disruptions over his government's decision to scrap high-value notes. The opposition parties, too, were to go into a huddle to decide their plan for the House.

Outside Parliament, the parties have planned protests across the country against demonetisation. Though Left has called a 12-hour bandh the call hasn't found many takers in the Opposition camp.

The Congress has clarified it hasn't called a shutdown but will hold protest demonstrations. Breaking ranks, Bihar chief minister and Janata Dal (United) president Nitish Kumar...

PM will speak in parliament on demonetisation if there's proper debate: Naidu

India, Nov. 29 -- The Prime Minister could speak on demonetisation in Parliament if there is a proper debate, the government said on Monday in a fresh bid to end the deadlock over the controversial issue that has stalled both Houses for the eighth consecutive day.

Question raised in Parliament over CSR spending by companies

New Delhi, Nov. 23 -- The question of what companies are doing in the name of Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) and how the government is overseeing the implementation of the CSR legislation was raised in Parliament on Tuesday. Rajya Sabha MP from Punjab Partap Singh Bajwa asked the ministry of corporate affairs

Demonetisation: What the opposition leaders have said so far

New Delhi, Nov. 28 -- Prime Minister Narendra Modi's move to ban Rs500 and Rs1,000 currency notes on 8 November has evoked sharp reactions from the opposition parties, giving them a cause to rally public opinion against the central government. The opposition parties are demanding the...

HIGHLIGHTS

PM Narendra Modi can speak at concerts, why not in Parliament: Rahul Gandhi

New Delhi, Nov. 22 -- As the government and Opposition battle it out in the Parliament over the demonetisation issue, Congress vice-President Rahul Gandhi on Tuesday...

Mayawati dares PM Narendra Modi to seek fresh mandate

New Delhi, Nov. 24 -- Bahujan Samajwadi Party (BSP) supremo Mayawati on Thursday dared Prime Minister Narendra Modi to hold fresh elections to know the people's view on demonetisation.

SESSION 360

► Cong students' wing marches to Parliament, detained

New Delhi, Nov. 29 -- The National Student's Union of India (NSUI) held a march to Parliament on Monday against the demonetisation move and its impact on the students cross the country.

► Kanpur Train Tragedy: Death toll rises to 133, Rail Min to make statement in Parliament today

New Delhi, Nov. 21 -- The death toll in one of the worst rail disasters in the country that took place when the Indore-Patna Express derailed near Kanpur, has reached 133.

► New draft IIM bill does not have President as a 'visitor' any more

New Delhi, Nov. 28 -- The human resource development (HRD) ministry is likely to table the proposed draft of the IIM bill in the ongoing Parliament session, now that it has received the law ministry's approval.

► Govt introduces new bill in Parliament; 30% tax, 10% penalty, 33% surcharge on income undisclosed

New Delhi, Nov. 28 -- The government today introduced a new bill to amend Income Tax Act in Lok Sabha. In order to curb black money in the country, Finance Minister Arun Jaitley proposed an alternative scheme called, 'Taxation and Investment Regime for Pradhan Mantri Garib Kalyan Yojana, 2016' (PMGKY) for the Bill.

PHOTOS

Rahul Gandhi addressing media outside Parliament House, New Delhi. See More...

VIDEOS

Demonetisation a 'historical' decision: Mehbooba Mufti